

Preservation of Historic Winchester
Presents

Noted House Restorer Christopher Owens

Sunday, March 4, 2007 at 3 p.m.

Handley Library Auditorium

Free and open to the public

Join Christopher Owens, principal of Reworks Inc. of Madison, Virginia, for a PHW sponsored presentation at the Handley Library Auditorium on Sunday, March 4 at 3:00 p.m. Mr. Owens is both a craftsman and consultant on all phases of house restoration. In a career spanning 40 years, he has worked on hundreds of projects. Mr. Owens not only intensely researches his projects, he also has acquired the technical craft skills from carpentry to bricklaying to instruct restoration crews how to perform the work. His clients have included the White House, the College of William and Mary, The National Trust for Historic Preservation and many of the houses owned by Virginia-born U.S. Presidents.

After his formal presentation, Mr. Owens will entertain questions on all areas of house restoration from basement to roof ridge.
